

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

General Terms and Conditions (GTC) for participation in the Paperjam Expat City Rally 2025

§1 Scope – Validity

1. The Paperjam Expat City Rally is carried out in accordance with the regulations of the organiser. MM Publishing and Media S.A is the organiser of the The Paperjam Expat City Rally.
2. These terms of participation regulate the legal relationship, which is reached between the participant and the organiser. These rules and regulations are subject to possible changes. The relevant version of these rules at the time of registration is a part of the contractual agreement between organiser and participant.
3. All declarations made by a participant to the organiser are to be addressed to MM Publishing and Media S.A..

§ 2 Rules of Participation

1. Anyone who is 18 the day of the event is eligible to participate to the Paperjam Expat City Rally .
2. The organiser will inform participants of any organisational changes ahead of the event. Directions of the organisers and designated personnel must be followed. In the case of infringements that bear an impact on the event's normal course or possibly affect the safety of any other participants, the organiser has the right to pull out the concerned participant from the event at any time. Legally binding declarations can solely be voiced towards participants by the organiser's authorised personnel.
3. The event is unaccompanied and take place in public area. Each participant is free to move independently from one bar to another.

§ 3 Registration – Conclusion of Contract

1. The registration, which acts as the contractual agreement between participant and organiser, can only be conducted by using the online entry form at www.Expatrally.paperjam.lu.
2. The contract becomes binding with an explicit click stating that the participant has read and accepted the general terms and conditions as well as the privacy policy. A participant shall only be deemed eligible to start once the organiser has received the complete participation form and the participant has received the official confirmation of participation.
3. Upon the receipt of the completed participation form, the organiser sends out a confirmation of registration.
4. The organiser reserves the right to disqualify or exclude a participant if he/she is under suspicion of taking illegal substances before or during the event.

§ 4 Fees

1. Participation in the event is free of charge for Paperjam member Club and their invited guests.
2. Non-members may be required to pay a participation fee, as specified at the time of registration.
3. However, all drinks and food must be paid for directly by the participants at each bar.

§ 5 Check-in and Rally Pack Collection

1. A participant will only receive his/her rally pack if he/she is able to present the confirmation of participation as well as valid photo identification (ID/passport). In case the participant is unable to attend the check-in in person, he/she must arrange for and authorise another person to pick up the rally pack on their behalf. Rally packs cannot be sent by post or delivered at a later time.
2. Each participant is required to check the rally pack upon receipt for completeness and accuracy. Claims or complaints made at a later stage will not be considered.

§ 6 Participant cancellation

1. A free of charge cancellation is possible.
2. The organiser sets an organisational limit (number of participants and/or later registration date), which will be announced in the advertisement or at a later date. Registrations that exceed the limit will not be accepted.

§ 7 Exclusion of Liability – Limit of liability

1. Participation is at the participants' own risk. Each participant is solely responsible for his/her own alcohol consumption and behavior throughout the event.
2. The organiser's liability – including for third parties, contractors, and volunteers – is strictly limited to cases of proven gross negligence or intentional misconduct.
3. The participants expressly waive any right to claim compensation from the organiser or its affiliates unless caused by such gross negligence. Should a third party make a claim against the organiser due to a participant's actions, the participant agrees to indemnify and hold the organiser harmless.
4. If, in cases of force majeure, the organiser is entitled or, due to official orders or for safety reasons, obliged to make changes in the execution of the event or to cancel it, the organiser is not liable for damages to the participant
5. Personal injury claims are limited to the standard insurance used by the organiser. The organiser is not liable - except in deliberate cases – for unusual and therefore unforeseen consequential damages. The insurance limits also apply to any cases of personal injury claims on behalf of employees or any other third parties that are hired to assist the organiser for the execution of the event, or with whom the organiser is contractually bound to.

6. The organiser is in no way liable for health risks of any participants connected to partaking in the event, this includes, but is not limited to, incidents occurring in the bars or while traveling between them.
7. The organiser is in no way liable in case of lost personal goods or valuables.

§ 8 Data Collection and Data Management

1. The personal data provided by the participant during registration are stored and processed to implement and carry out the event. By completing the registration process, a participant accepts the storage of his/her data for the purposes stated.
2. The participant hereby agrees that the photos, videos and interviews on radio, TV, print media, books, photo-mechanical playbacks (films, CDs etc.) recorded in conjunction with his/her participation in the event may be distributed, published and used for advertising (homepage, Facebook, Instagram and other social media, flyers, posters and other print media) without any entitlement to compensation. Moreover, the participant agrees with the forwarding of his personal data (name, e-mail address) for the purposes of the sending of photos taken of him/her during the event, which will be provided by a company commissioned by the organiser.
3. The participant agrees that his/her data may be used for the sending of newsletters and SMS or postal mailings (e.g. sending of magazines, newsletters). In doing so, his data will not be disclosed to third parties and will not be used for commercial advertising purposes, but only for promotion and information about MM Publishing and Media S.A. events or activities. By participating, he/she is automatically registered for the Paperjam newsletter. It is his responsibility to provide the organiser with a valid e-mail address. The participant understands and accepts that electronic communication by e-mail is the official communication channel of the Paperjam Expat City Rally event.
4. In the context of the game organised as part of the event, certain personal data of the participant—specifically the company name, job title, country of origin, and number of years residing in Luxembourg—may be transmitted to a partner solely for the purposes of prize attribution and contest logistics. No directly identifiable information such as the participant's name or first name will be disclosed. The data will be used exclusively for the aforementioned purposes and in compliance with applicable data protection laws.

§9 Code of Conduct

Participants are expected to behave respectfully towards bar staff, other guests, and fellow participants. Misconduct, excessive drunkenness, aggressive or inappropriate behavior, or any action that endangers the safety or enjoyment of others will result in immediate disqualification from the event and may lead to exclusion from future Paperjam Club activities. The organiser reserves the right to remove any participant at any time if their behavior is deemed unacceptable.

§10 Disqualification and misconduct

Participants may be disqualified at any time if they provide false information, breach the rules set out in these General Terms and Conditions, or fail to comply with instructions given by the organiser or its authorised representatives.

Any form of misconduct, including but not limited to excessive alcohol consumption, inappropriate or aggressive behavior, or actions that disrupt the smooth running of the event or endanger others, will result in immediate disqualification. The organiser reserves the right to remove any participant from the event without prior notice in such cases.

Disqualified participants are not entitled to any compensation.

The conditions for disqualification mentioned in §2 (1) apply.

§11 Game and Prize

As part of the Paperjam Expat City Rally, a game involving various activities to be completed in participating bars will be organised. Each completed activity will earn the participant a certain number of points, as defined by the organiser. The participant with the highest number of points at the end of the rally will be declared the winner.

In the event of a tie, the winner will be chosen by drawing lots or by a tie-breaking activity determined by the organiser. The winner will receive a prize, which is not exchangeable for cash or any other alternative.

Participation in the game is optional and free of charge. The organiser reserves the right to modify the game, its rules, or the prize at any time for organisational reasons. The organiser's decision regarding the game and the winner is final and cannot be contested.

§12 Schedule of the Event

The Paperjam Expat City Rally will officially start at 5:00 PM on July 11, 2025 and end at 1:00 AM the following day. Participants are free to join or leave the rally at any time during this period. Any activities completed outside of this official time frame will not be considered for the game or prize attribution.

The organiser is not responsible for any incidents occurring before the official start time or after the event has ended.

(Status of conditions of participation: 10.06.2025)